

Ryan Potts (right) was the victor in the annual corn-eating contest sponsored by Perkins County High School's FFA chapter. Potts polished off an impressive 25 ears of corn at the annual contest which tests the limits of its participants. Coming in at a close second was Cody Lee, at left.