

The Perkins County FFA chapter is holding a food drive to support the local food pantry this week and part of next week (Dec. 6-15).

Anyone who would like to help support the food pantry may do so by bringing items to the office at any one of the schools in Perkins County.