

Nancy Reynolds of Venango was one of nearly 60 individuals who attended the sixth annual Republican Valley Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Conference on April 2 at Arapahoe High School.

Participants were able to attend sessions on acute coronary syndromes, agricultural emergencies, documentation, drug case studies, ethics, firefighter rehab, heat-related emergencies, stress, and vitals and stethoscopes.