

Members of the North Platte Community College choir and instructor Elizabeth Peters, along with the NPCC Jazz Band, presented a “Pink Out” concert on Oct. 13 in recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The concert raised $500, which was donated to the Callahan Cancer Center in North Platte. Bert Ogg from Madrid is a member of the choir and is pictured on the far left in the front row. (Courtesy photo)