

On Monday afternoon, Oct. 17, Westview residents met in the parlor to reminisce and show cherished treasures. They shared such items as a round puzzle, jewelry, aprons, dishes, figurines, mugs, lantern, and a potato masher. Each of these items, to name a few, hold such fond memories from long ago to something not that long ago.

Dessert and hot apple cider followed to complete a fun afternoon.