

Beginning at 11:30 a.m. MST Wednesday, Feb. 20 at the New Hope Berean Church in Ogallala, the Christian Women's Club will present "You're In Good Hands."

The Ogallala High School mixed choir will entertain with several musical selections, and the featured speaker will be Stephanie Wolfe.

Wolfe is from Marian, Iowa and is the mother of three and grandmother to nine. She will share her story of being a sheep in good hands of the Shepherd. Tickets can be purchased at the door.

The event is sponsored by Area Christian Women's Connections, part of Stonecroft Ministries.

For more information and reservations please call Donna at 308-352-2439 or Wanda at 308-353-1715. Reservations are due by Sunday, Feb. 17.

Join hands with friends and family and plan now to attend "You're in Good Hands!"
