

About 260 people attended the 2013 Les Lukert Winter Conference in Kearney.

The conference was sponsored by the Nebraska Society of Fire Service Instructors and Central Community College-Lexington. Sessions covered fireground strategies and accountability, floods and moving water, ground ladders, residential fires, responsible fire command, SCBA confidence, surface ice rescue, ventilation and other topics.

Participants from Grant were Rick Dreiling, Robert Hochstein and Shawn Wiebe.