Red Hat News

Seventeen ladies from Scarlet Chapeau Connection attended the arts council drama, "Nana's Naughty Knickers" held at the high school on March 16. All report that the play was really fun and kept them guessing what was going to happen next. They enjoyed the dinner served by Jim "Stumpy" Hendrickson.

The next meeting will be April 11 in Ogallala. Everyone is to bring something they made or a quilt that was given to them. Please share memories of the precious item.
