

Youths up to age 18 are being invited to enter the Lions Club Talent Contest set for Sunday, April 21, at 2 p.m. in the Chase County Schools auditorium in Imperial.

There are six age categories of competition for solos, duets and group performances. Any type of talent is eligible, including singing, dancing, instrumental performances or drama.

Deadline for entry will be Wednesday, April 17.

Local winners advance to district and state competition.

The Imperial and Grant Lions Clubs are co-sponsoring the talent show together.

Questions can be directed to Jayne Henry in Imperial, 308-882-4095, after 5 p.m., or to Lissa Brown in Grant, 308-353-0841.

Entry forms are available at the school.
