

Amy Johnson, a teller at Commercial State Bank of Elsie, a branch of the Bank of Keystone, recently completed the 2013 School of Banking Fundamentals. This school was held April 15-19 in Grand Island. The School of Banking Fundamentals is sponsored by the Kansas and Nebraska Bankers Associations and is in partnership with the Colorado, Louisiana and Wyoming Bankers Associations.

The school is designed to instruct students in core banking concepts as they relate to the overall functioning of a bank. Completion of this course assists students in developing skills which allow them to better serve their banking community.

The Schools of Banking, located in Lincoln, is a jointly owned subsidiary of the Kansas and Nebraska Bankers Associations.
