

Lydian Shipp and Camille Unrein, better known as Tiger and the Freedom Birds, made their second appearance at Six Aces Roller Rink on Oct. 4-5. The middle school-aged band has been together since early 2012. Shipp, lead singer and guitarist, and Unrein, bass player and backup vocals, are from the small town of Brule. The 13-year-olds have played many gigs around the area. They have also played in Denver at Camp Jam, in Salt Lake City, and even Alaska. Tiger and the Freedom Birds perform pop and rock songs. Their dads help them with the electric setup of the band, but the music is all theirs.
(Photo by Joan Craig)