

Brionne White of the Grant Fire Department shakes hands and gives out some ‘high fives’ to students during a special Fire Prevention Week presentation at the school on Oct. 9.

Grant firefighter Harlan Rahn showed students at Perkins County Elementary some of the tools used by the fire department and the gear worn by firefighters. He let students ‘knock’ him on the helmet to show how much protection the helmet provides.

Firefighters from the Grant Fire Department participated in Fire Prevention Week activities at the Grant County Fairgrounds.

Firefighters from the Grant Fire Department participated in Fire Prevention Week activities at the Grant County Fairgrounds.