

Burle Newth was given special recognition on Oct. 7 for his years of dedication and service to the community of Venango and the Venango Lion's Club. Newth joined the Venango Lion's Club in 1948 and was one of the 52 charter members of the group. Over his 65 years of service to the Lion's Club, he has helped with numerous projects, with the track at the high school being the biggest undertaking the group has ever done. He still helps today with events and is an active member. Newth, left, received a special plaque from Venango Lion's Club President Mike Dodson and had a special dinner at the Tin Can Diner in Venango in his honor. (Photo by Tim Linscott)
