

A good-sized crowd gathered Sunday, Feb. 2 at the New Life Fellowship Church in Grant for a party to watch the Denver Broncos and Seattle Seahawks do battle for the biggest prize in football. The crowd was predominantly pro-Broncos with one Seahawks fan in the crowd. The Bears and Saints were also represented at the gathering. Besides watching the game, party attendees were able to play board games, visit with friends and family and enjoy a huge spread of food, including soups, chicken wings, hot dips, salads and a plethora of desserts. Unfortunately for Broncos fans, the Seahawks won 43-8. (Photos by Tim Linscott)
