

The Perkins County Weekend Food Program received a helping hand on Saturday, March 29 as local volunteers and Girl Scouts held a bake sale with proceeds going to help the program. A total of $501 was raised for the program that helps provide food on weekends for youth in need at Perkins County Elementary. Several Girl Scouts and families donated money or brought baked goods to Hatch’s Super Foods to show support for the program. Pictured are, from left to right, Adaline Linscott, Miah Long, Olivia Linscott, Alyssa Briggs and Michelle Briggs. (Photo by Tim Linscott)