

The Perkins County Chamber of Commerce unveiled a new traveling trophy as part of the spotlight business of the month. The first recipient of the trophy was Hometown Agency. The award was given out at the monthly chamber meeting in March and on hand to present the award was chamber president Andi Lee, center, Jeff Skeels, owner of Hometown Agency and Kandi Zimmerman and Tiffany Long of Hometown Agency. Also on hand, from left to right, were board members Jessie Faber, Dawnya Dreiling, Jill Barry and Chelsey Alderson. (Photo by Tim Linscott)