

Members of the Perkins County Community Foundation presented Robin Quinn of the Hastings Memorial Library in Grant with two checks to help further the intern program and purchase new computers on June 17. One check was for $1,800 for computers and technology equipment for the library and the other for $1,000 to help continue the internship program at the library. On hand for the check presentation were, from left to right, Hannah Beck, intern at the library, Quinn and Foundation members Jeff Wallin, Michelle Ross and Ashley Colglazier.
