

Commissioners in Phillips County Colo. have announced that they are hosting the 2012 Taste of Agriculture event on Monday, Jan. 23 from 4-7 p.m. at the Phillips County Event Center in Holyoke, Colo.

Proceeds from this year's event will benefit the Haxtun Community Child Care Center.

The event is held to allow vendors to promote their agricultural products and services available in the great plains. Vendors will be providing a door prize and a "taste" of their product for those attending.

Vendors interested in participating may call 970-854-3778 for more information.
