

Fields of ‘smiling’ sunflower heads create a beautiful yellow landscape in areas of Perkins County. Most of the sunflowers are now used for confection rather than for oils. Much of the crop was planted late this year which could mean a delayed harvest. (Photo by Jan Rahn)