

Applications due by June 15.

Fellowship applications for Nebraska LEAD (Leadership Education/Action Development) Group 33 are now available for men and women involved in production agriculture or agribusiness.

Seminar themes include leadership assessment and potential, natural resources and energy, ag policy, the political process, global perspectives, nuclear energy, social issues, and more.

The Nebraska LEAD Program is designed to prepare the spokespersons, problem-solvers and decision makers for Nebraska and its agricultural industry.

In its 32nd year, the program is operated by the Nebraska Agricultural Leadership Council, a nonprofit organization, in collaboration with the University of Nebraska's Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources and in cooperation with Nebraska colleges and universities, business and industry, and individuals.

Applications are due June 15. Contact Shana at sgerdes2@unl.edu. or request an application by calling 402-472-6810. Visit www.lead.unl.edu for information about the selection process.
