

Nebraskans planning holiday hunting trips should remember there is a change to the nonresident two-day hunt permit.

Starting this year, that permit is valid for any two consecutive days of upland game or waterfowl hunting during the calendar year. There is no permit limit per hunter. In the past that permit had a limit of one per year and was restricted to hunting from the day before Thanksgiving to Dec. 31.