

The Perkins County High School mixed vocal trio that includes Ethan Behrends, Emma Friedel and Tori Osler has been selected to perform the National Anthem at the 2011 NSAA volleyball championship finals on Saturday, Nov. 12.

They were selected from a group of candidates who auditioned via recorded format and will be singing for an audience at the Heartland Event Center in Grand Island at the site of the Nebraska State Fair.

They will sing at 9:05 a.m. CST before the introduction of participating teams.
