

Winning a playoff for first place, Alex Johnston of Perkins County took the first place medal at the Perkins County golf invitational April 17, scoring a 78. Also scoring 78 was Jared Arensdorf of North Platte St. Patrick's.

Austin Thelander wasn't far behind, scoring 81 and finishing fourth, winning a card playoff against Mitch Ferguson of St. Pat's.

As a team, Perkins County finished in second place, scoring 341. First place went to North Platte St. Pat's, who had three golfers in the top 10, and scored 334.

In third place was Chase County with 352 points, fourth was Garden County with 379 and fifth, Hershey with 389.

Perkins County Invite

1. NP St. Pat's 334
2. Perkins County 341
3. Chase County 352
4. Garden County 379
5. Hershey 389
6. PC JV #1 394
7. Hyannis 410
8. Ogallala JV 414
9. Creek Valley 434
10. South Platte 443
11. Sutherland 469

Individual Standings

1. A. Johnston, PC 78
2. J. Arensdorf, NPSP 78
3. M. Ferguson, NPSP 81
4. A. Thelander, PC 81
5. B. Honeman, NPSP 84
6. F. Kasselmann, CC 84
7. T. Schwartz, GC 86

- 8. A. Moline, CC 87
- 9. C. Marshall, Her 89
- 10. K. Collins, GC 89

Other PC Standings

- 11. C. Whalen 90
- 18. T. Lee 92
- 20. J. Sexson 92
- 24. C. Breazeale 94
- 26. C. White 95
- 32. S. Farnsworth 100
- 39. B. Toner 108
- 45. C. Miyamoto 115

Next Meet

The Plainsmen golfers competed at Garden County High School on Tuesday, April 24, and will travel to North Platte to the SPVA tournament on Friday, April 27 at St. Pat's High School.