

Several high school boys found time to pull a prank on a fellow student at Perkins County High School Friday, Oct. 30 after snow was cleared from the football field. An unsuspecting senior would find her vehicle loaded with snow and topped with a snowman following the volleyball game against Garden County that evening. (Photo by Shari Friedel)