

It's not too early to start thinking about the 2010 Perkins County Fair.

Everyone is invited to take up the "Quilt Block Challenge."

Each year the Perkins County Fair invites everyone to enter this special open class contest. This year the "challenge" is being put out early to give everyone plenty of time to get involved with this creative project.

The pattern for the challenge is available now at the Perkins County Extension Office. Participants can make this block up in any manner and out of any type of material.

Past challenge participants have made the quilt block from wood and paper, as well as the traditional fabric. Wall hangings, table runners, pillows and quilts are some of the possible projects that can be made—let the imagination soar!

Stop by the Perkins County Extension Office to pick up the pattern for the Big "O" Block today!!
