

Sutherland had their speech invitational on Saturday, Feb. 6. Wallace placed first with 136 pts. and Paxton second with 58 pts.

The following Wallace students were medal winners:

Oral Interpretation of Drama: 1st place, Anna Griffiths, Chelsea Sowle, Taylor Nielson, Rachel Marquardt and Mark Jameson; 2nd place, Sara Rollenhagen, Annika Wickizer, Vicki Holst, Kelsey Hubbard, and Bradee Manary.

Duet: 1st place, Lane Swedberg and Josi Hasenauer; 5th place, Bradee Manary and Annika Wickizer

Entertainment: 2nd place, Lane Swedberg, 4th place, Emily Hasenauer.

Extemporaneous: 1st place, Ryan Sowle; 2nd place, Travis Woodcox; 5th place, Mark Jameson.

Humorous Prose: 1st place, Lane Swedberg; 2nd place, John Paul Lempke; 3rd place, Tarassa Swedberg; 4th place, Gini Phillips.

Informative: 1st place, John Paul Lempke.

Persuasive: 2nd place, John Paul Lempke; 3rd place, Danica Messersmith; 4th place, Gini Phillips.

Poetry: 3rd place, Tarassa Swedberg; 6th place, Rachel Marquardt.

Serious Prose: 2nd place, Tarassa Swedberg; 4th, Josi Hasenauer.

Wallace Invitational

The Wallace speech invitational was held Friday, Jan. 16 with 15 schools in attendance. Wallace finished in second place with 88 team points, following Perkins County who scored 100. Paxton was third with 60 points.

Results are:

Entertainment: Lane Swedberg fifth.

Extemporaneous: Ryan Sowle second, Travis Woodcox fourth.

Humorous prose: John Lempke second, Lane Swedberg fourth.

Informative: John Lempke third, Taylor Doell sixth.

Persuasive: Gini Phillips fifth.

Poetry: Tarassa Swedberg second.

Serious Prose: Josi Hasenauer third.

Duet Acting: Lane Swedberg, Josi Hasenauer first.

Oral Interpretation of Drama: Anna Griffiths, Chelsea Sowle, Josh Harms, Mark Jameson, Gini Phillips third.