

About 220 individuals attended the 18th Annual Mid-Winter Fire School on Feb. 7 at Holdrege High School.

Attending from Wallace were Charles Andrews, Deb Jameson, Ray Jameson, Ryan Kuhlman, Michael Sullivan, Lynn Swanson, Josh Tobiasson and Tom Tobiasson.

The school was sponsored by the Central Nebraska Volunteer Firefighters Association and Central Community College.

Sessions focused on advanced fire investigation and evidence preservation, ethanol emergencies, fire scene assessment, grain bin extrication, new equipment for auto extrication, stroke care and infection review, wildland tactical decisions, and other topics.
