

P.E.O. News

The Wallace/Venango/Grant Chapter of PEO met March 1 in the home of Carolyn McArtor with Donna Arnett and Sherry Erlewine serving as co-hostesses.

The business agenda covered details of the Cottey College Bus Trip April 16, 17 and 18. Details discussed included the campus tour, informational meetings about the college and the meetings with academic advisors and professors. Also we were encouraged to be planning for the upcoming state convention to be held June 11-13, in Norfolk, Nebraska. Title for this year's conference will be "Energizing Your Chapter and Embracing Change."

Officer Installation was given by Gertrude Hundhausen. The following officers were presented:

President—Lynn Schumacher

Vice President—Patricia Wilson

Recording Secretary—Susan Hansen

Corresponding Secretary—Carolyn McArtor

Treasurer—Lynda Forney

Chaplain—Donna Arnett

Guard—Joni Johnson

Delegate to State Convention—Lynn Schumacher

Alternate Delegate to State Convention—Pat Wilson

Karen Wall gave an insightful program on “Encouragement, Motivation and Responsibility” showing ways to inspire one another to feel and do better. A delightfully tasteful “Thinking Green” theme provided lively fellowship following the program.

Next meeting will be April 5, 6:30 p.m. for Materials Mania Exchange at the home of Charlotte Wallin in Grant.
