

Ashley Kemling, Perkins County High School sophomore, will be recognized at a special Law Day luncheon at the Governor's residence in Lincoln on May 4. Her award-winning essay was based on this year's Law Day theme, "Democracy Responds to Technology."

Students in grades seven through 12 had the opportunity to address this question:

Benjamin Franklin is quoted as saying, "Any society that would give up essential liberties to gain a little temporary security deserves neither liberty nor security." Keeping in mind what Franklin said about liberty and security, should the United States require full-body x-ray scans at all U.S. airports to combat terrorism? Defend your position.

For complete story, subscribe to our e-Editions...

Call 352-4311 for details.