

Photographs by Ron Boerner will be displayed at Meadowlark Gallery in Grant during the month of May.

Boerner is a native Nebraskan and currently resides in North Platte, where he and his wife, Sheila, have lived for more than 40 years.

He has been a photographer at heart since he was about 12 years of age, but only when he retired from a 33-year teaching career at North Platte High School did he have the opportunity to pursue his avocation in earnest.

For full story, subscribe to our e-Editions...

Call 352-4311 for details.