

The public is invited to the Wallace Fall Festival events including Cowboy Church on Sunday evening, Sept. 18. at 6 p.m. CT at the Wallace Park (community building if inclement weather).

The special speaker and musician is R.W. (Ronnie) Moyer, cowboy chaplain bullfighter of faith, Fellowship of Christian Cowboys.

Moyer is from Colorado and will be here along with his wife, Becky.

He has been involved in Christian camping, youth ministry, horses and rodeo for over 30 years. He has been a camp and conference speaker and worship leader for Youth for Christ, a coach and instructor for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and rodeo chaplain for the National Little Britches Rodeo Association, the National High School Rodeo Association, and the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

He is also an executive board member for the National Fellowship of Christian Cowboys, as well as a Rodeo Bible Camp speaker, worship leader, instructor, bullfighter and pick-up man.

The Moyers have been married for 25 years and have three daughters in grade school, high school and college. All three of the Moyer girls compete in the great sport of rodeo and have succeeded in and out of the arena.

The Moyers have recorded three albums in Nashville and perform at state fairs, rodeos, churches, and camps across the country for folks of all ages. No group is too big or small.

Plan now to attend. A free will offering will be taken.
