

AARP Nebraska is seeking leadership volunteers who are concerned about issues facing people age 50 plus to serve on its statewide executive council.

The executive council carries out AARP's strategic priorities within the state under the guidance of the state president and state director. Council members understand and support the mission of AARP "to enhance quality of life for all as we age, to lead positive social change and to deliver value to members through information, advocacy and service."

They provide leadership in the state planning process, and assist in defining major areas for action in the areas of legislation, advocacy, education and volunteer involvement.

Executive council volunteers are appointed for a one- or two-year term, with an option to renew, for a maximum of six years.

The application deadline is Oct. 15, 2011. For more information or to obtain an application form, call toll-free 1-866-389-5651 or send email to nearp@aarp.org.
