

The Nebraska Safety Council, Lincoln is presenting the Annual Panhandle Safety Conference and Exposition on Oct. 6, from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Gering Civic Center for safety professionals, human resource personnel, supervisors and managers Topics include:

- How to Motivate Your Employees to Work Safer.
- The Keys to Hiring Safe Workers.
- Safety Pro Panel Q&A.
- Straight From the Horse's Mouth-OSHA Update.
- Wellness: An Essential Business Strategy (Parts 1 & 2).

- Injury Management and Communication - Keys to Lower Work Comp Costs.
- The DOT HazMat Question.

The conference also hosts a trade show featuring products and services.

Pre-registration is required. Register two people from a company and the third is free.

Call 888-704-7233, Ext. 108, for more information or go online at www.nesafetycouncil.org to view or print a brochure.

Nebraska Safety Council is a nonprofit organization that provides leadership and resources to promote a safe and healthy environment in workplaces, on roads and in homes and communities.