

"Autumn Colors" will be in full bloom for the Christian Women's Club on Saturday, Oct. 15. Beginning at 10 a.m. CDT at the Wallace Community Hall the crowning glory of fall will be celebrated with a mini music concert by Brenda Copeland from Bastrop, La. Brenda will then also be sharing her story of "How to be a Princess and Not Wear the Crown All Day!" Brenda is a former Miss American preliminary winner and tells her story of going from a life of abuse to a life of peace. She was born in Houston and began singing at age three. She has traveled through life experiences with drugs, alcohol and spousal abuse and survived an emotional breakdown. She is a gospel recording artist, has two children and one grandchild.

Tickets are available at the door. Reservations can be made by calling Mary Vote at 308-387-4203 or by email at rmvote7@wirelessnet.net or Stephanie at jsa3fike@gmail.com. Free childcare is also available with reservations. At 12:30 p.m. MDT Brenda will be doing a mini music concert and sharing her story at New Life Fellowship Church, 617 W 4th in Grant, Neb.

Tickets will be available at the door and reservations can be made by calling Donna Lundvall at 352-2439 or Wanda Poppe 353-1715.

All reservations need to be made by Oct. 13.

This is surely a program not to be missed, so plan to attend Wallace or Grant and make reservations today!
