

Free 2012 travel guide now available.

The 2012 Nebraska Travel Guide is now available. Request a free copy today and discover more than 180 pages brimming with striking photography, useful maps and information. The guide has everything needed to rediscover the road trip in Nebraska.

Travelers will find ideas for exploring the great outdoors, communing with nature and uncovering the state's rich history. Places to explore and things to see in each of Nebraska's seven regions are highlighted in the annual guide from the Department of Economic Development's Travel & Tourism Division.

Other features include a special section on Nebraska's hunting and fishing opportunities (produced in tandem with the Nebraska Game & Parks Commission), two pages of children's games, special event listings, fun family activities and great dining destinations.

"Our new Travel Guide gives visitors the visual motivation to begin exploring Nebraska," said Kathy McKillip, Nebraska's tourism director, "and is an indispensable tool for planning a trip packed with fun-filled days, interesting discoveries and unforgettable moments."

Order the free travel guide at VisitNebraska.gov. Then stay connected with Nebraska Tourism on the Visit Nebraska Facebook page at www.facebook.com/visitnebraska, on Twitter @VisitNebraska and on YouTube at www.youtube.com/nebraskatourism.