

By Jan Rahn

Managing Editor

Two skunks were confirmed with rabies in Lincoln and Perkins counties during early April, according to Jeff Erickson, DVM of Western Plains Veterinary Service in Wallace.

Erickson said last month there was also a positive rabies case in a four-week-old calf in Hayes County.

“These are three of the confirmed 12 cases in the state of Nebraska this year,” said Erickson.

For complete story, subscribe to our e-Editions...

Call 308-352-4311 for details.