Golfers can look forward to a day of fun and prizes while contributing to the betterment of Perkins County through the fundraising effort of the Perkins County Community Foundation.

The PCCF Funday Golf Tournament is to be Sunday, May 23 at the Grant Golf Club.

Breakfast and lunch will be served to those participating in the day's four-person scramble.

Start time is 9 a.m. Anyone interested in putting together a four-person team may contact Jeff Wallin 352-2114 or Michelle Ross 352-4131 for more information on the tourney.

Come enjoy a day of exercise and fun while striving for a trophy or prize, all toward the effort of raising funds for Perkins County.
