More candidates have been added to the 2010 November General Election ballot.

Monday was the cutoff for non-incumbents to file for village trustee and ESU seats.

The most recent filings have been for the Village of Venango.

Two additional candidates vying for a seat on the board of trustees in Venango are Lloyd Marquardt and Troy Grothman.

The two new candidates join non-incumbent Diana Maupin, who filed just recently, and Dennis Ekdahl, who is completing the term for Barb Prottzman. Incumbent Dale Grothman did not file for re-election to the board.
