The public is invited to honor and celebrate the life of Corrie Wood on Saturday, Sept. 17 when a candlelight vigil will be held at Grant City Park.

The vigil marks the three-year anniversary of Wood's unsolved murder on Sept. 20, 2008.

The gathering is scheduled from 6-10 p.m. with a theme of "light a candle for justice," and will include a barbecue and music.

Candles will be provided.

Proceeds from a free-will donation for the meal will go toward a newly established Corrie Wood foundation.

Wood, who was 28 when she died, was a Chase County High School graduate.

She is the daughter of Jerry Wood and Karen Wood of Imperial.

Her daughter was four years old at the time of her death.
