

The congregation of the Grant United Methodist Church came together Sunday, Sept. 18 for a full day of celebration to mark the 125th anniversary of the church. Guest pastors, special music, member recognition, a catered meal and afternoon entertainment made the day special for everyone in attendance. Those present were presented a balloon after worship to be set free in a ceremonial manner following the service and prior to the lunch. (Photo by Jan Rahn)