

Three days of intense wind last week was about all area residents could take when it finally subsided Friday. On Thursday, reports indicated straight line winds of up to 35 mph with 60 mph gusts. This branch on Garfield Avenue couldn't withstand it any longer.
(Photo by Shari Friedel)