

Residents near Third Street and Washington in Grant have been detouring for a week while C&S Construction replaces the entire intersection. As one of several projects on the city’s “to do” list, it should be completed within a week or so to eliminate the pronounced dip in the street and replace the deteriorating gutter pans at a cost of approximately $68,000. (Photo by Jan Rahn)