

An estimated 300 costume-clad youngsters hit the streets for treats during the annual Chamber-sponsored Trick-or-Treat Street event held Halloween afternoon in downtown Grant. Other entities offering treats included the museum and senior center, along with Westview Retirement. The gorgeous 73-degree weather played a role in coaxing kids and their parents to join their friends and neighbors on the streets. (Photo by Jan Rahn)