Following a full-course meal, enjoy the hilarity of “Nana’s Naughty Knickers” sponsored by the Perkins County Area Arts Council at the high school in Grant.

Under the direction of Dawnell Glunz, the eight-member cast will stage the play featuring Bridget and her grandmother who are about to become roommates in New York.

Will Bridget be able to handle all of the excitement? Will grandma get arrested or evicted?

Proceeds from the dinner theatre will benefit the arts council and the high school’s drama department.

Come enjoy an evening of food and entertainment by local cooks and cast.
