

The fifth grade class at Wallace School is doing a year long project to earn 1,000 books before the school year is over. The class is doing this to deliver books for children in need. The class would really appreciate it if people would bring children books to make their "goal." The books need to be in good condition. They hope to make deliveries in time for Christmas. Please call Wallace School or Mrs. Kelly Smith for more information.