

Danica Messersmith of Wallace High School has been chosen to receive a scholarship from Kinney Construction.

Danica will pursue a Master's degree in speech and language pathology. She will attend University of Nebraska at Kearney, majoring in communication disorders.

There were no applicants from Perkins County High School this year.

In 1992, the first year Kinney Construction Scholarship was established, Alicia Melton of Dickens was the recipient. She is currently senior business manager in marketing and sales of industrial products for Union Pacific Railroad in Eugene, Ore.
