

Wallace grad nominated for homecoming royalty

Wallace graduate Curtis Perriotte-Olson of Campbelltown, Australia, is among the 48 candidates for Chadron State College's homecoming royalty competition.

The contest, which is decided by an online vote of the student body, features 25 candidates for queen and 23 for king. The winners were to be announced during the spirit rally in Armstrong Gym on Thursday, Oct. 25, at 6:30 p.m.

Each CSC club or organization was eligible to submit one female and one male student for the competition

Area students on SCC Dean's List

Southeast Community College in Lincoln has released its Dean's List for the quarter recently completed.

Area students Nikki Gollner majoring in criminal justice and Lyndee Schrotberger majoring in medical assisting were named to the Dean's List.

To be recognized on SCC's Dean's List, a student must complete at least six quarter credit hours of the term with a minimum grade-point average of 3.5.
