

Area students graduate from Kearney

Brian Hastings, president and CEO of the University of Nebraska Foundation, gave the winter commencement address Friday, Dec. 14, at the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

In all, 418 graduates received degrees during ceremonies at the UNK Health and Sports Center.

Graduating with honors were Nathan Borowski of Grant with a Bachelor of Science degree in public relations and Craig Loeffler with a Bachelor of Arts degree in elementary education.

Celeste Lempke of Wallace graduated with a Master of Arts in English.
