

Four Perkins County senior art students had 10 pieces juried into the Nebraska Wesleyan University 'The Bridge' Art Show.

Jessyca Briggs had three works selected by the Nebraska Wesleyan art faculty, including a block print, a stippling drawing and an acrylic painting.

Two photograph-related pieces entered by Jessie Woodmancy were selected, a photo of a street scene in New York, and a photo-collage of winter trees.

Shania Metcalf had two photographs selected, a photo of a teapot, and one of an older vintage car.

Three photos by Rachel Patrick were selected, her Dad's hands, a work glove, and her dog's paw. Rachel was honored with a 'Best of Show' award, and 'The Bridge' Art Scholarship worth $10,000.00 over four years at NWU.
