

On Wednesday, March 20, fourth grader Savannah Schmitt and other Perkins County elementary students dipped their pinkies into purple dye for a good cause. For each dollar they contributed, students could dip one finger, signifying one child immunized from polio. Assisting with the dipping were Grant Rotary Club members, including Don Harris (pictured). (Photo by Jan Rahn)